 Land at Dublin Airport and transfer to your hotel. In the afternoon tour Dublin's old city center to see the Bank of Ireland, Trinity College, Georgian squares and shopping streets. Visit the Old Jameson Distillery to learn about whiskey and try one for yourself. The evening is at leisure – if you wish you may create your own pub crawl!

Day 3 – Sun: National Stud & Medieval Kilkenny
 Visit the Irish National Stud to see fine stallions and learn about horses. Also walk through the charming Japanese Gardens, created to symbolize life from birth to death. Drive to Kilkenny and spend the afternoon at leisure. (B, D)

Day 4 – Mon: Blarney Castle & Killarney
 This morning drive south and stop for photos at the imposing Rock of Cashel. Visit Blarney Castle and kiss the "Stone of Eloquence." If you wish, you may shop at the Blarney Woollen Mills or stop by the pub between the shops. Travel via Macroom to Killarney and check into your hotel. After dinner you may like to visit some of Killarney's "singing" pubs. (B, D)

Day 5 – Tue: Ring of Kerry Tour
 Explore one of Ireland's most popular scenic areas – the Ring of Kerry. Watch a farmer work with his sheepdogs to control sheep. Visit the Skellig Experience to learn about off-shore islands. Stop in the colorful village of Sneem and pause for views at Moll's Gap. (B, D)

Day 6 – Wed: Irish Coffee & Cliffs of Moher
 Drive north to Foynes to visit the Flying Boat Museum, which recalls the early days of air travel. Learn how to make a perfect Irish coffee as it was first created here. Pause in Bunratty Village before visiting the Cliffs of Moher for wonderful views of the majestic walls of rock. Continue to your hotel in Galway. (B, D)

Day 7 – Thu: Clifden & Killarney Fjord Cruise
 Travel through the heart of Connemara on the way to Killarney Harbour to take a catamaran trip along the deep fjord. Enjoy scenic views and view wild life. Drive south to Clifden, known as the "Capital of the West." Stop for a look around the shops and pubs before heading back to Galway. (B, D)

Day 8 – Fri: Guinness & 12th Century Brazen Head Pub
 This morning travel back to Dublin on the east coast and check in to another hotel, close to Temple Bar.
